WASHINGTON – The United States Mint (Mint) is opening sales for the 2019 American Liberty High Relief Gold Coin™ (product code 19DA) on Aug. 15 at noon EDT. This coin is struck at the West Point Mint, contains one ounce of 99.99 percent fine, 24-karat gold and has an enhanced uncirculated finish.

The 2019 American Liberty High Relief Gold Coin continues the celebration of modern renditions of the iconic figure of Liberty. Its predecessor—the 2017 225th Anniversary High Relief Gold Coin™—won Best Gold Coin in Krause Publications' 2019 Coin of the Year Awards.

The obverse (heads) of this coin features Liberty with 13 rays of light emanating along her headdress, symbolizing the free and creative spirit of America's people. Inscriptions are "LIBERTY," "2019," and "IN GOD WE TRUST." The reverse (tails) design features a bald eagle as it prepares to land. The inscriptions are "$100," "E PLURIBUS UNUM," "1 OZ.," ".9999 FINE GOLD," and "UNITED STATES OF AMERICA."

Each exquisite coin is packaged in a black hand-lacquered hardwood presentation. A Certificate of Authenticity (COA) is included. Mint Director David J. Ryder autographed a limited number of the COAs.

Pricing for the American Liberty High Relief Gold Coin is determined according to the range in which it appears on the Mint's "Pricing of Numismatic Gold, Commemorative Gold, Platinum, and Palladium Products" table. The 2019 table is available here.

Mintage of 2019 American Liberty High Relief Gold Coin is limited to 50,000 units. Orders will be limited to one per household.

The Mint accepts orders at catalog.usmint.gov and at 1-800-USA-MINT (872-6468). Hearing- and speech-impaired customers with TTY equipment may order by calling 1-888-321-MINT (6468). Shipping options are available at catalog.usmint.gov/customer-service/shipping.html.

The 2019 American Liberty High Relief Silver Medal, which displays the same modern rendition of the iconic figure of Liberty as the 2019 American Liberty High Relief Gold Coin, also goes on sale on Aug. 15.
